Spring Break Journals!

I will be sending home Spring Break writing journals on Thursday. They will look like a suitcase. Students can write about what they did over the break and share with out class when we return to school. No worries if you are not traveling! There are writing ideas for students who stay in the area as well!

As I mentioned at Parent Teacher Conferences, our class will be hosting a Student Teacher from UWSP for the 4th Quarter. Miss Olson will begin working in our classroom on April 3rd. We are excited to have her!
